

LAMBERTVILLE-NEW HOPE WINTER FESTIVAL

SNOWFOLK ART COMPETITION

The Lambertville-New Hope Winter Festival, a non-profit community fundraising organization, is seeking entries for the Village Snow-Folk Art Competition!

What is SnowFolk ?

SnowFolk art is a 2'x4' plywood cutout in the shape of a traditional snowperson. Contestants then take the blank canvas, and create a work of art and can enter their masterpiece for prizes in one of three categories.

Entries will be on display at the New Hope-Solebury High School during the Lori Mckenna Concert Friday Jan 25 and during the Pancake Breakfast Jan 27

Prizes will be awarded Sunday Jan 27 at the Pancake Breakfast!

Prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in each Category. Categories will have two age groups 12 years and under and 13 years and older plus adults.

Where to Pick-Up Your Snowman?

You can enter and/or pick-up a cut-out at Coldwell Banker Hearthside Realtors located at 42 N. Main New Hope, Pa. Monday through Sunday anytime from 10am-5pm.

Entries must be returned by January 23, 2008 for the contest !

Categories

Historical or Well-Known Figures:

Are you a history buff? Pay homage to your favorite historical figure by designing a cut-out (George Washington or Betsy Ross) or recreate a character from a movie or show !

Traditional Snowman:

The classic! Paint a traditional snowman with NO attachments (such as shovels, carrots nose, ect.) The sky's the limit on how you paint your masterpiece to make it original.

Imaginative Free-Form:

Design a piece that is out of the ordinary: a village scene, an abstract work of art....let your imagination run wild.
